

Government of Georgia – Appearance 2017

Meeting with NATO PA President

2017-03-08

Tbilisi will host the 2017 NATO Parliamentary Assembly Spring Session, as was announced during today's meeting between Georgian Prime Minister Giorgi Kvirikashvili and NATO PA President Paolo Alli. The parties discussed Georgia's North-Atlantic integration and the implementation of the Substantial NATO-Georgia Package, also commending Georgia's significant progress in this direction. During the meeting, special attention was paid to the importance of the NATO PA Spring Session to be held in Tbilisi, on May 26-29, 2017. Primr Minister's Press Office